

Associate Recognized for 25 Years of Service

Twenty-five years ago, Pam Curry found out that her job with Dairy Mart was ending because the company was relocating to Connecticut. She found a new home with ASW and has been here ever since. We congratulate Pam on her 25 years of service!

The West Virginia native has lived in the Akron area since she was 3 years old. Pam is a Customer Service Representative with ASW. She loves, “Knowing that we have accomplished something for our customers in a timely and accurate manner.” Pam takes pride in what she does, “not just for myself but as a representative for ASW Global.”

Having worked in one location for so long, Pam has her share of fond memories. She enjoys “dressing up for Halloween and letting loose a bit” and appreciates her work family that she is “fortunate to have shared different things with, through good and bad times. But the good certainly outweigh the bad.”

These days it’s becoming rare for people to be at one job for so many years. ASW benefits from the wealth of experience hardworking associates like Pam bring with them each and every day. Pam “feels very fortunate to have had the opportunity to be in one place for 25 years.” She notes that “At the time when things were real bad after 9/11, ASW found ways to keep us employed. Hours may have been cut and people repositioned, but we were still working and had benefits.”

Aside from her work family, Pam has a family away from work. “I’ve been blessed to have a good family upbringing,” she reveals. “I’m the oldest of 4 children, have 1 sister and 2 brothers. I have 2 grown children who have blessed me with 4 grandchildren, 3 grandsons and 1 granddaughter.”
