ASW Global Unveils a New Logo and Website Refresh

Mogadore, Ohio - ASW Global, LLC, a supply chain management company, has announced a brand refresh. The refresh includes a redesign of the company logo and a revamped website that both embody the company's continued mission to be a single source solution for creating unprecedented levels of supply chain value. According to company CEO André Thornton, "The new look reflects ASW Global's interconnectivity to its regional and global networks and is a nod to its more than three-decade history of providing proven results for clients. While the company logo has changed, our leadership, dedicated associates, and commitment to delivering high-quality solutions for a global economy remain the same."
