

Matthew W. Maglicic

Vice President, Director of Sales

Matt joined ASW Supply Chain Services in 2021 as the Vice President, Director of Sales following his position as National Sales Manager at another 3PL warehouse provider. Matt's corporate career has brought him the opportunity to work in several different industries. Previous to warehousing and logistics, Maglicic spent most of his career in Sales Leadership and Business Development in the manufacturing sector, specifically plastics and chemicals.

Maglicic is a graduate of The University of Findlay with a B.A. in Finance and Business Administration. He has embraced professional development throughout his career and has received sales and management training through the DISC® methodology as well as learning staffing and corporate culture strategy through the Chally Assessment™.

He credits a lot of his career success through his athletic, military and coaching experiences. Matt served 6 years in the Ohio Army National Guard and played football at The University of Findlay where he earned Academic All-American and 2nd Team All-American honors. He also coached football for 15 years at the youth and high school levels in Columbus, OH.

Matt is active in the IWLA (International Warehouse and Logistics Association) and CSCMP (Council for Supply Chain Management Professionals). He served as the Board Treasurer of the CSCMP Columbus, OH Roundtable from 2017 - 2019.
