

Carlos Stevens

President and General Manager, ASW Supply Chain Services

Carlos Stevens is President & General Manager of ASW Supply Chain Services. In this role, Carlos heads the Supply Chain Services business unit and leads all supply chain operations.

Stevens has over 35 years' experience at ASW, rising in the ranks from hands-on warehousing roles, to supervising operations, to executive leadership. He brings unmatched operational insight and credibility to the role of President and General Manager. His team-centric leadership style is grounded in humility, loyalty, and genuine care for ASW, our people, and our clients. Carlos and his wife Carrie are parents to four adult children and two grandchildren.

Carlos came to ASW in 1987, after serving in the United States Marine Corps. He began his tenure with ASW in the Rubbermaid Division, working third shift as a forklift operator. Carlos later moved into our polymer division, then known as Gilchrist Polymer Center. Carlos was responsible for getting an operation up and running in Beaumont, Texas and served as the General Manager of our Sam's Club Division in North Canton. In 2007, Carlos was promoted to Director of Operations, ASW Supply Chain Services. In 2020, Carlos became the Vice President of the division.

Carlos has a thoughtful, steady approach to leadership. His thorough knowledge of ASW Supply Chain operations, customer needs, and company culture will enable ASW to deliver seamless continuity in our supply chain services, drive growth and innovation, and strengthen relationships—both internally and with our clients.
